READ: Revelation 10:1-11

QUESTIONS FOR REFLECTION

1. What impression is made by the description of this angel (vv. 1-3)? What does it say about who this messenger represents?

2. How does this "book," or scroll (v. 2), differ from the previously mentioned "book" (5:1)? What is the significance of these differences?

3. Peals of thunder speak (v. 3). What do they say (v. 4)?

   How does this strike you? (What are some implications of this outcome?)

4. The angel swears an oath (vv. 5-7). This is the only oath sworn in Revelation. What is the gist of the oath? What is validated or guaranteed by the oath? (When will it happen?)

5. The Apostle John receives further instructions (vv. 8-9). What is he told to do? What effect does it have (v. 10)?

Reflect on the sweet & bitter side of eating the scroll. What might this suggest?

6. How is John's mission adjusted (v. 11) from his original mission (1:10-11)? Why?

7. What comfort for the believer, for you, can be derived from this chapter?
